Hi Farrell,

Hope your week was a good one.

We are well into answering the Trustees discovery. We have identified the needed documents and have requested them. Additionally, we have determined that in order to answer/respond to the Trustee's discovery we will need forensic accounting. That process is under way but will not be completed by 6/30. I expect to have a timeline by early July. I anticipate that completion of the forensic work will take weeks but not months. I am very aware of the July court schedule you earlier advised me of.

I will report again next week no later than Wednesday.

I continue to appreciate your patience.

Best,

Bob
